

INCIDENT SKETCH

The Incident Sketch is a very important part of the investigation process. It provides the location where an incident has occurred on a project site and the location of witness(es) who observed the occurrence.

When practical to do so, try to establish approximate distances to assist investigator(s). In particular, the location of witnesses where they viewed the incident is very important.